Yellow warning
Rain

Between
10:00 Sun 31 Oct 2021 and
23:59 Sun 31 Oct 2021

Heavy rain across northeastern Scotland, with some flooding and travel disruption possible.

What to expect

- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Rain, heavy at times, will continue to move northwards across northeastern Scotland during the rest of the morning and afternoon before clearing this evening. Accumulations of 15 to 30 mm are expected, with 40 to 50 mm possible over the southern Cairngorms, and this rain falling on already saturated ground may lead to some flooding.

Reason for update

Warning area extended to encompass a wider area of northeastern Scotland, with impacts increased to medium.

Very low likelihood of medium impacts
